

I AM the Good Shepherd
John 10:1-25
sermon series: Who Is Jesus?, pt. 5
Pastor Gerald Stigall

Introduction:

Consider the setting of that Palm Sunday and all that was happening as hundreds of sheep passed through the Sheep Gate into the Temple area. The priests carefully examined each one for the upcoming Passover observance later that week. Now picture the crowd as they hailed Jesus as their anticipated king. Remember these images as we ponder Jesus' declaration, "I Am the Good Shepherd" - and also his declaration, "I AM the Door/Gate".

Explore John 10:1-21

Implications/Applications:

1. Jesus knows you completely.
2. Jesus invites you to know Him intimately.
3. Jesus as the Door not only opens the way for you to come to the Father, but also opens the way for the Holy Spirit to come to you.
4. Jesus calls you to shepherd others as He shepherds you.
5. Jesus forces you to answer the ultimate question:
"Who Is Jesus?"

(Implications and Applications are on the back)

This passage prompts me this week to respond in the following specific ways: _____